

Portrait of an FBCA Teacher

An FBCA teacher professes and demonstrates their personal faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, embracing Scripture as the inspired Word of God, and viewing their role in education as a calling to nurture both the academic excellence and spiritual formation of their students.

Christ-Centered Educator

Leads with a Biblical worldview, reflects Christ's love, and nurtures students' spiritual growth.

Student Champion

Develops the whole child, values each student's uniqueness, and balances high expectations with care.

Collaborative Professional

Builds strong relationships, works closely with colleagues, and contributes fully to the school community.

Lifelong Learner

Seeks growth through reflection, embraces change, and models a passion for learning.

Innovative Instructor

Creates engaging, student-centered lessons that promote deep understanding and real-world thinking.
