

Capital School District Social Studies Curriculum Overview

Kdg	Good Citizens * School and Community Helpers * Where We Live * Now and Long Ago
1	Citizenship * Our Changing World * We Love Our Country * People in the Marketplace
2	Governing the People * A World of Many People: Now and Long Ago * Living in Our Country * Using Our Resources
3	Citizens in a Global World * The First Americans * Exploring the World Around Us * Remembering Delaware's Past
4	The Thirteen Colonies * Countdown to the Revolution * The Birth of a Nation * From Sea to Shining Sea
5	Principals of Democracy * Ecosystems * The Civil War * Age of Immigration & Industrialization * Economic Choices
6	Building Global Mental Maps * Humans Interact with the Environment * Cultural Patterns & Cultural Diffusion * Culture & Civilization * Purposes and Powers of Government * Economic Systems * Reasons for Regions
7	Expansion of Freedom * Political and Economic Freedoms for U. S. Citizens * Historical Research * Why Trade? * Green Cities * Partitions and Partnerships * Civic Participation
8	Interpreting the Past & Historical Research * American Principles * Structures of Government: Federalism * American Citizenship * How Markets Work * Money, Banking and Taxing Spending * Change Over Time
9	World History From the 16 th Century to the Present
10	Economics * Political Science
11	United States History From Reconstruction to the Present
	All the above courses are required to meet the State Standards and Capital School District's curriculum goals.
Electives	Sociology * Psychology * Civil Law * Constitutional Law * Criminal Justice * Non-Western World * Civil War * World War II *AP Psychology *AP United States History (Satisfied 11 th Grade Credit) *AP Political Science (Includes US Government and Politics and US Comparative Political Science – Satisfies 10 th Grade Credit)