Ed Harrison

Coach and Benefactor

Coach, Teacher, A. D. for 38 Years in Wilmington

Ed Harrison grew up in Wilmington and was an outstanding student-athlete as a member of the Wilmington High School Class of 1969.

In 1974 Ed was hired as a Physical Education teacher by Larry Cushing. This started an impressive run of successes as a teacher, coach and Athletic Director at Wilmington. During his tenure, Ed coached freshman and JV Baseball, Varsity Softball, JV and Varsity Football coach. He was awarded the Lowell Sun Football Coach of the Year in 1989 and coached the Shriner's All-Star Team in 1990.

Ed was appointed Athletic Director in 2003. He added boys and girls lacrosse and boys and girls freshman soccer programs. He is a member of many community organizations including the Wilmington Hall of Fame Committee, Wilmington Business Partnership, and created the Wildcat Summer Clinics to raise money for Wilmington Athletic Programs.

Ed was named MSSADA Athletic Director of the Year in 2013 and received the President's Award of Merit in 2015.

Sue Hendee
Coach

Over 35 seasons, Sue Hendee built one of Wilmington High's most successful programs, compiling a record of 324–237–87. Her teams captured league titles in three conferences and won seven straight Middlesex League championships (2011–2017).

Under her leadership, the Wildcats claimed the 2013 Division II North title and advanced to the Eastern Mass Championship game, essentially the state final.

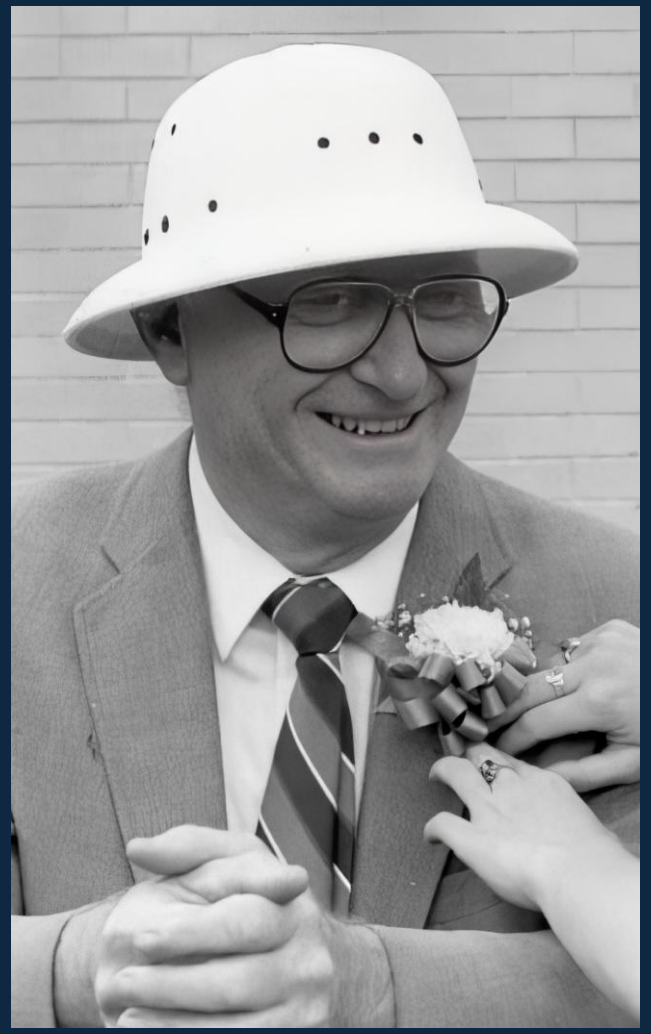

A native of Pittsford, NY, Sue was a three-sport athlete before attending Springfield College, where she helped launch the varsity women's soccer program. She later taught for more than 30 years in Wilmington, primarily at Shawsheen Elementary School.

Sue earned numerous Coach of the Year honors from league, regional, and state associations and was the only Massachusetts coach named a United Soccer Coaches National Coach of Significance in 2018.

Beyond coaching, she helped raise over $350,000 for the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute through the Pan Mass Challenge and tens of thousands of dollars for breast cancer charities with Stoneham High at their annual "Kick Cancer" fundraisers.

Sue retires as the winningest female coach in Wilmington High history, a Massachusetts Soccer

Coaches Hall of Famer, and the namesake of a State Final Four bracket in her honor.

Robert “Bob” Surran
Coach

Robert “Bob” Surran, first inducted into the Wilmington High School Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000 as a benefactor, is honored again — this time as a coach. He joins Jim Gillis as one of only two individuals in school history recognized in both categories.

Surran guided the Wilmington softball program from 2002–2008, compiling a stellar 99–40 record (.712). His teams captured three straight Cape Ann League titles (2002–2004), made five state tournament appearances, and earned seven postseason victories. Under his leadership, the Wildcats advanced to the Division 2 North Final in 2002 and the sectional semifinals in 2004.

As both a Lowell Sun and Cape Ann League Coach of the Year, Surran’s squads were known for talent, heart, and discipline — exemplified by the epic 18-inning playoff game against Triton in 2004. Over seven seasons, he coached seven future Hall of Famers, leaving an enduring legacy of excellence in Wilmington athletics.

Jim Cushing

Benefactor

Founder of the WHS Alumni and Friends

Jim was an outstanding athlete during his time at Wilmington High School. He played football and hockey all 4 years. He was awarded the George Spanos Memorial Award for his contribution and service to Wilmington High School Athletics.

However, his support for Wilmington sports and the community was just getting started. He founded the Wilmington High School Alumni and Friends in 1984 and tirelessly raised funds for the students and student activities at Wilmington High School.

Jim was also the President of Wilmington Pop Warner Football and was involved in numerous other community activities.

Tragically, Jim passed away in 1989, at age 39, after a courageous battle with a terminal illness. Jim will forever be remembered as a self-less supporter of the youth of Wilmington and the athletic programs of the community.

Benefactor

“Wilmington’s First Team Manager”

Teddy was unable to participate in athletics due to physical limitations. However, he wanted to be part of the Wilmington Athletic Program. In his freshman year he volunteered his services as team manager to all three sports at the time, football, basketball and baseball. He would end up supporting all three teams for his four years at Wilmington High School. In Teddy’s senior year, in appreciation of the services and enjoyment that Teddy gave the athletes at Wilmington High School the coaches and players awarded him the outstanding player trophy. The only time in Wilmington history that has been done.

Teddy will always be remembered as the “little boy on the red tricycle who never missed a football practice or game.”

Inducted to High School Athletic Hall of Fame 1992

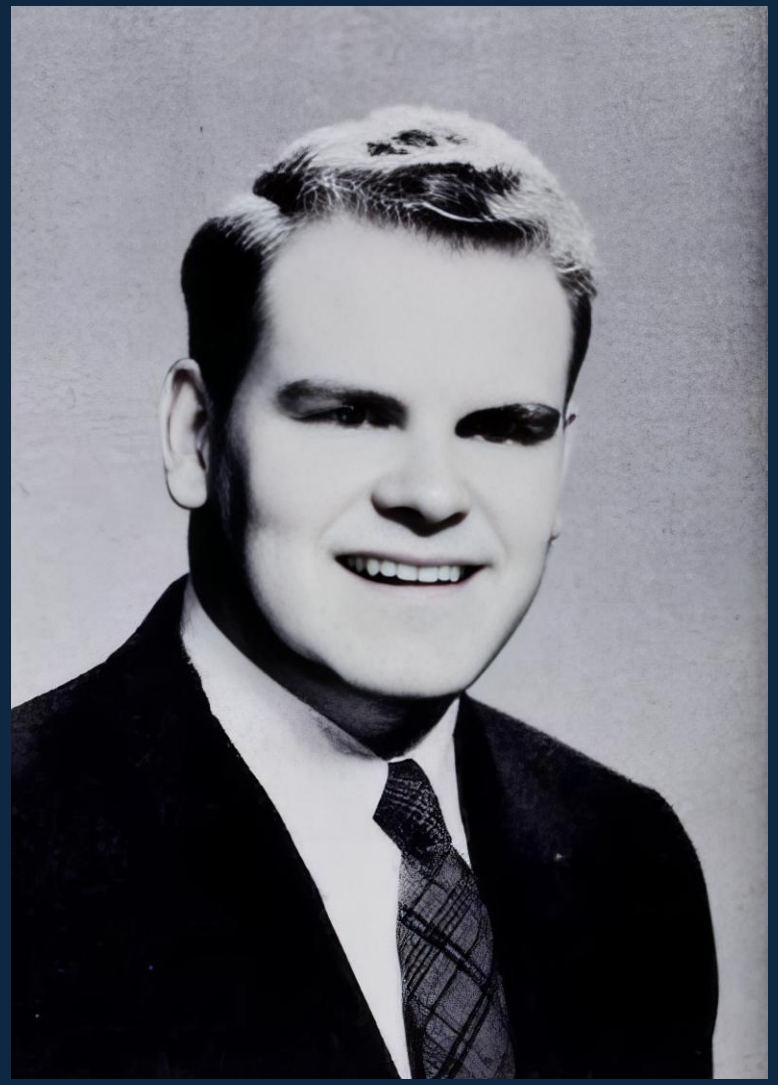

Scott O'Connell
Benefactor

The Ultimate Team Manager

Scott O'Connell (Okie) grew up in Wilmington and graduated from Wilmington High School in 1978. Growing up Scott played Little League baseball, Youth Hockey and Pop Warner Football. Okie was a "late bloomer" and could not compete, size-wise, with the bigger athletes. That did not deter Okie as he turned this into an opportunity. He became the team manager for 3 varsity sports. Football, under Coach Fred Bellissimo, Hockey, under Coach Al Fessenden and Baseball, under Coach Jim Gillis. He became more than a team manager. He was teammate, confidant, motivator and cheerleader all at the same time. His teammates said he "defined the character of our team", "always put the teams interest above all else", "Okie was a huge part of why we were successful".

Okie was part of the 1976 Merrimack Valley Conference Champion Football Team that went on to the Division II Super Bowl, the 1977 State Tournament Hockey Team and the 1977 Eastern Massachusetts Division II Champion Baseball Team.

Superintendent of Public Works

Bob Palmer graduated from Wilmington High School in 1953. He was Captain of the 1952 football team and a member of the basketball. and baseball teams.

After serving in the United States Army he returned to Wilmington to work for the Town of Wilmington in the Highway Department. In 1968 he became Superintendent of Public Works and took over Parks and Grounds in 1983. The infrastructure for athletic fields was in tough shape. in 1983. Under Bob's direction the Town reconstructed all of the tennis courts, the High. School track, girls softball field and the WHS football field. The Glen Road and Woburn Street fields were upgraded to support additional youth athletic programs. In 1995, the High School baseball field was reconstructed and recognized as "District 1 Field of the Year"

Through Bob's tireless efforts Wilmington's outside varsity facilities are second to none.

Jamie Pote

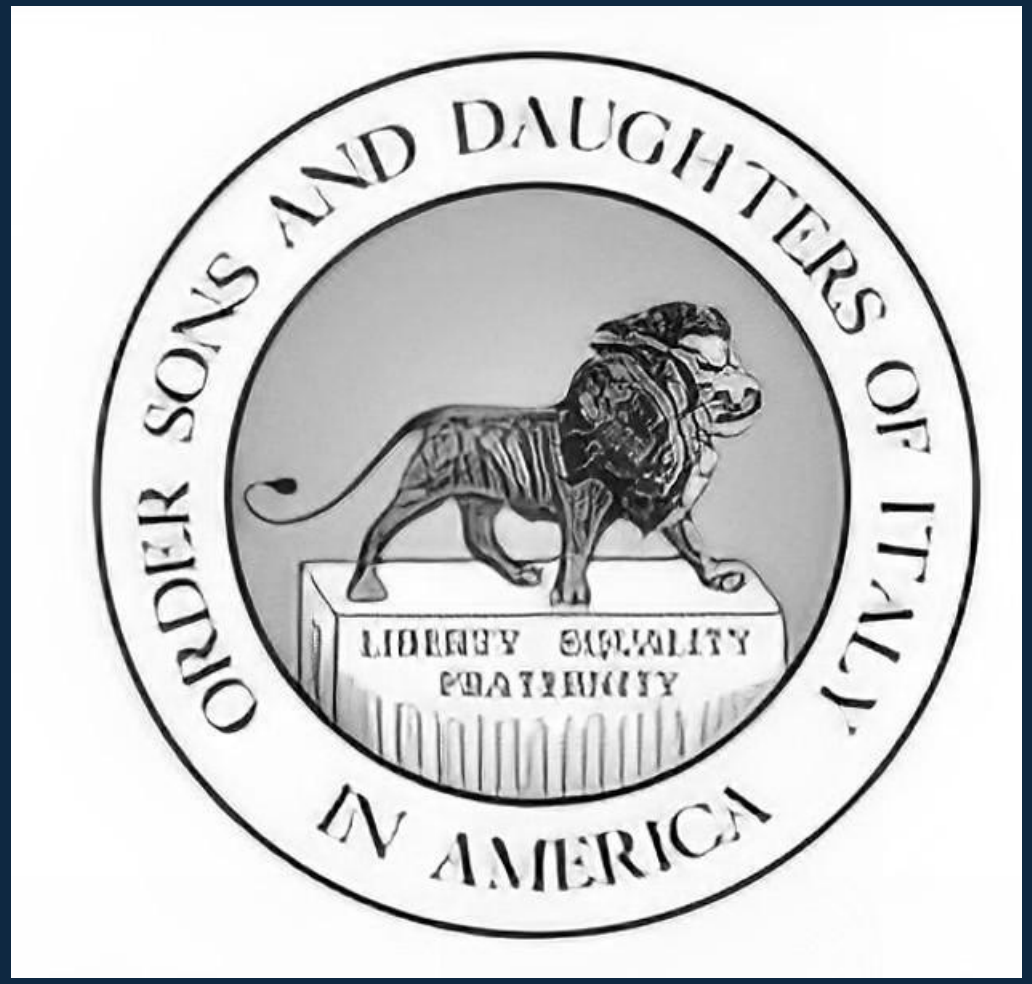

Benefactor

A fixture on the Wilmington sports scene for over 30 years, Jamie Pote began at the Town Crier as an intern in 1993 and became sports editor at just 18. He covered more than 2,500 WHS games, seven state champions, four state finalists, 14 sectional titles, and 29 Thanksgiving football games. Under his leadership, the sports section tripled in size, featuring both star athletes and unsung heroes. He created special sections celebrating championship teams, award winners, and WHS legends, along with all-decade teams and “Where Are They Now” features.

A 1992 WHS graduate, Pote championed local athletics through coverage of community events, fundraisers, and Hall of Fame inductees. His editorials even led to the baseball field being named for Dick Scanlon.

A former WHS hockey and baseball player, Pote studied journalism at Northern Essex Community College and has written for the Lowell Sun, Boston Herald, and now the Eagle-Tribune. He is authoring Tales from the Wildcats: A 90-Year History of Wilmington High Football.

Pote lives in Hudson with his wife, Julie, and twin daughters, Lennox and Teagan. He joins his sister, Nancy Cassidy (’06), in the WHS Hall of Fame.

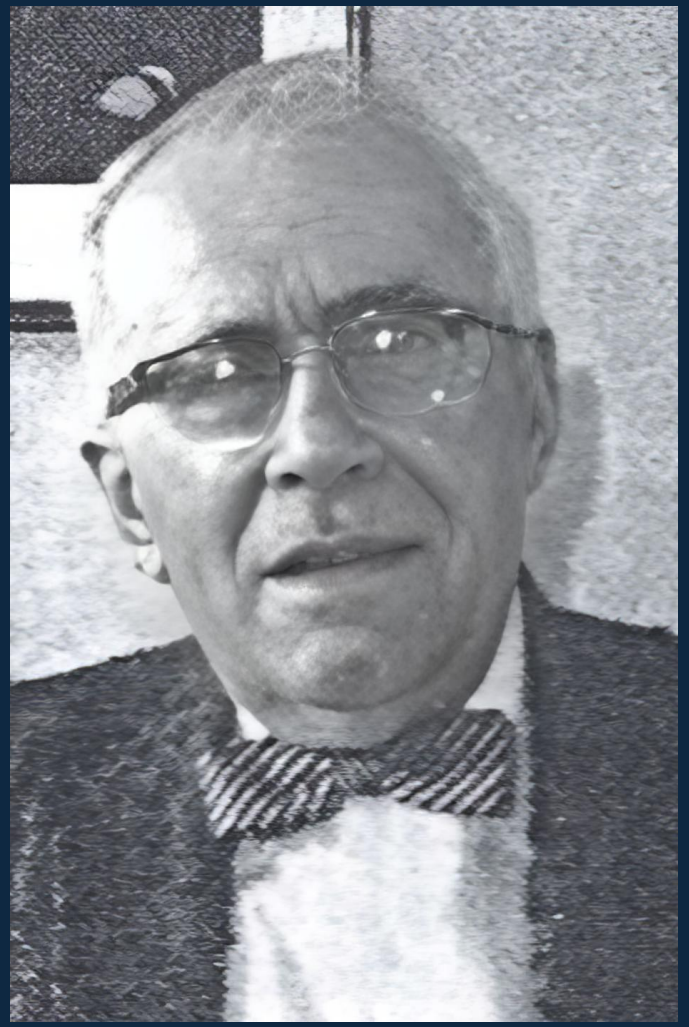

Wilmington Sons and Daughters of Italy
Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli Lodge

Benefactor – Sons of Italy

The Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli Lodge #2183, has been one of the most generous organizations in the Town of Wilmington. They have financially supported the schools and the community in general. The Lodge has supported youth sports, installed new playgrounds and equipment at the North Intermediate and Woburn Street Schools, provided stadium jackets for the Marching Band and uniforms for the Color Guard. They have provided thousands of dollars in scholarships. They have provided scoreboards for Alumni Stadium, the Dick Scanlon Baseball Field, and the Woburn Street School; indoor batting cages for the baseball and softball teams; purchased uniforms for various Wildcat Sports Teams. They have sponsored the WHS Holiday Wrestling Tournament for over twenty-five years.

Jake has donated much time and money to the Wilmington High School Athletic Programs. He designed, built and donated pitching machines, batting cages, balls and equipment to the Wilmington High School Softball program.

Jake spent many years volunteering to help the youth of Wilmington. He coached Wilmington Little League and was the Assistant Softball Coach at Wilmington High School for 10 years. Jake also was the founder of the ASA Softball Program in Wilmington which consisted if teams under 12, 14 and 16 years old that competed all around Massachusetts.

Paul Lyman, Head Softball Coach said " The best thing to happen to Wilmington softball, other than the players, was Jake Townsend. He was fun-loving yet fierce and determined. We would not have had the success we did in the 1990's without his generosity and his knowledge of the game".

Inducted to High School Athletic Hall of Fame 2010

Tom Walsh

Benefactor
The Voice of Wilmington High School Sports

Tom Walsh was involved in Wilmington High School athletics since 1988. He started by filming his son Dennis' football games for his own personal use but soon parents and coached were asking him for copies. Someone suggested that Tom approach WCTV about broadcasting the football games on TV. They agreed and Tom began his career of broadcasting many Wilmington sporting events over the next 22 years. Over those 22 years he broadcast over 200 Varsity Football games and missed only one game in 22 years.

In 2010, Athletic Director Ed Harrison, asked Tom if he would be the public address announcer for the home football games. Tom held that position for the next 5 years.

Tom also was very involved in Wilmington High School girls and boys basketball. He broadcast many of the Varsity games with Paul Cardello and Paul Curtin. He later did scoring and public address responsibilities for both teams for several more years.
