1.07 Board President – Member Updates

Ms. Geist

- Thank you to everyone for their efforts during the tremendous snow event, including Voshell Bros. Welding and Kent Construction who assisted through the United Church.
- Attended the NSBA Legislative Policy Conference, which included meetings with the National AI Academy, staff members of the House and Senate legislative committee, and staff members of the US Dept. of Education. Received updates on federal funding. Also attended the DSBA Board of Directors Meeting.
- Noted that the Governor's State of the State address referenced additional funding for science and reading in schools.
- Attended a few sports and arts events at our schools.
- Really appreciate the staff in our schools providing the best opportunities for our students.

Ms. Pendleton

- Attended the Attendance Committee meeting.
- Goal in the future is to add at least 2-3 visits to schools.
- Good luck to our Dover High School boys' basketball team as they compete in the playoff games.

Ms. Duggins

- Handling the cleanup from the snow and ice storm was quite a task. Thank you to all staff members who worked through this situation to ensure our facilities and parking lots/sidewalks were clear and safe for students and staff to come back to school.
- Thanks to Dr. Cahoon for putting our students and staff first, making the best decisions for their safety and security.
- Attended the Teaching and Learning Committee meeting.
- Attended the Dover High School basketball game Senior Night.

Mr. Christiansen

- Thank you for everybody's efforts during the snow, Booker T. Washington building issue, and Dover High School/Kent County Secondary ILC bomb threats.
- Request that our Superintendent challenge and ask for forgiveness for the first and second days January 26 and 27, 2026 to be forgiven for staff and students.
- Observed during his presentation at the Career Day held at the Dover Middle School Campus that the students were well mannered, and applauded the staff and administration for the work with these students.
- Education for Capital's students begins at the Early Childhood Centers and continues through our elementary schools, middle schools, and high school. Keep doing what you're doing. Board members appreciate all staff.

Dr. Jackson

- Expressed gratitude to Capital's leadership for the hard work during the snow/ice storm and emergencies that occurred at our schools.
- Attended:
 - Dover High School boys' basketball game
 - Meeting at Dover High School regarding the Financial Literacy Course requirement
- Looking forward to visiting schools.
- Invited to participate in the Mayor's blue Ribbon Opioid Task Force Committee, partnering with Dover High School and possibly the Dover Middle School Campus through a campaign addressing the use of opioids and substance abuse.
- Thank you to all staff for your dedication.

1.06 Public Comment

Autumn England spoke regarding her concerns at the Dover Middle School in regards to staff complying with the district's grading policy as well as following 504 plans.
