

Brad “Stackhouse” Miller Scholarship

Brad Miller was a proud 1998 graduate of Karns City High School. During his high school days Brad was known as a tremendous football player, a great friend, and someone who just generally lived their life the correct way. After college, Brad started a career teaching and coaching at his alma mater. In November of 2023, Brad lost his battle with ALS. During his illness, Brad kept great spirits and continued to work as a teacher and a coach for as long as he could. A scholarship has been created by friends, family, and former teammates of Stackhouse in the amount of $1,000.00 to be paid to the post-secondary institution after completion of the first semester of that institution.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Graduate of Karns City High School in good standing
- Accepted and attend a post-secondary institution
- Involvement in extracurricular activities
- Embodies similar character as Brad did
- Preference given to football players who plan to pursue a career in education
- If no football player is seeking education as a major, then the scholarship becomes available to the senior class as long as they are seeking higher education or trade school
- Student should have a GPA above a 3.25, however, others will be considered

In order to be considered for the scholarship please submit the following:

- Applicant information sheet
- Proof of acceptance to post-secondary institution
- An essay of no more than 750 words that details your future goals and how you have lived in way that would have made Brad proud
- 2 Letters of Recommendation

Section for how to turn in and a deadline

- Application completed and returned to the Guidance Office along with all required documents by May 4, 2026

Applicant Information Sheet

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone

Number: _____

Post Graduation

Plans: _____

Grade Point

Average: _____

School and Community

Activities: _____
