

Kay Sedwick / Tina Schorr Memorial Scholarship

About the scholarship: Both Kay Sedwick and Tina Schorr were wonderful teachers at Karns City High School at the time of their passing. This scholarship was created in their honor with money received from the Central Blood Bank Scholarship Program during the 1997-1998 school year. Any money gained through the Central Blood Bank Scholarship Program in the future will be added to this scholarship fund and/or distributed to a graduating senior of Karns City High School. The number of students receiving this scholarship and the amount of the scholarship will vary depending upon the availability of funds and the number of applicants.

Who is eligible: Any student who is graduating from Karns City High School and pursuing education beyond high school is eligible.

Requirements for consideration: A completed application must be returned to the Guidance Office by the date specified.

Criteria for consideration: A panel consisting of teachers, administrators and guidance counselors will decide the recipient of this scholarship. The committee will be looking for a student who best displays those qualities exemplified by Kay Sedwick and Tina Schorr.

- Student should have displayed kindness and consideration throughout the school and community
- Student should have good grades, exemplary attendance and an unblemished discipline record
- Special consideration may be given to a student who demonstrates need for financial assistance
