FORSYTH COUNTY SCHOOLS ANNOUNCES CHIEF OF FOOD AND NUTRITION SERVICES

CUMMING, Ga. – The Forsyth County Schools Board of Education has approved the appointment of Kimberly Davis as Chief of Food and Nutrition Services. She will succeed Mr. Todd McClelland, who is retiring after years of dedicated service to the district.

Ms. Davis currently serves as principal of Sawnee Elementary School and brings nearly three decades of education experience.

Ms. Davis began her career with Forsyth County Schools in 1998 as a special education teacher. During her early years in the district, she served students at Vickery Creek Elementary, South Forsyth High School, and Mashburn Elementary. In 2003, she was named assistant principal at Nesbit Elementary School in Gwinnett County.

She returned to Forsyth County Schools in 2007 as assistant principal at Settles Bridge Elementary, where she served until 2014. She was then appointed principal of Coal Mountain Elementary School, a role she held until 2022, when she transitioned to serve as principal of Sawnee Elementary School.

“Kimberly is a trusted leader who understands our system and our community,” said Superintendent Mitch Young. “She brings a strong background in leadership and a focus on people. I am confident she will continue to build on the great work of our Food and Nutrition Services team and serve our students and families well.”

Ms. Davis holds a Bachelor of Arts in English and a Master of Education in Special Education from Georgia State University. She also earned a Leadership Add-On Certification from University of Georgia and is currently pursuing a Doctorate of Education in Leadership anticipated in May 2027.
