

Course Title:	Spanish 1B
Grade(s):	8

Course Description
Spanish 1B is the second half of the beginning Spanish sequence, designed for students who have successfully completed Spanish 1A or have equivalent foundational skills. This course expands learners' abilities in listening, speaking, reading, and writing while increasing confidence in everyday communication. Students will build on core vocabulary and grammar to express preferences, and engage in simple conversations with greater accuracy and proficiency.
Approved Curricular Materials/Textbook(s)
Auténtico Level 1

Unit Title	Unit Description (Include Unit Objectives)	Unit Pacing
Unit 1: Una Vida Balanceada	In this unit, students will be able to talk and write about foods they like and dislike. They will be able to talk and write about healthy food and exercise choices. Students will be able to talk and write about different eating habits for each meal.	14 weeks (September-December)
Unit 2: Adónde vas	In this unit, students will be able to talk and write about places they go. They will also be able to talk and write about places that other people go. They will be able to talk and write about various activities they do at these places.	8 weeks (December-end of January)
Unit 3: Quiere ir conmigo	Students will be able to talk with others about how to spend their free time and make simple plans. They will be able to talk and write about specific activities, and where and when the activities occur. They will be able to invite others to join their plans.	8 weeks (February-March)
Unit 4: Fiestas en familia	In this unit, students will be able to talk and write about their families, friends, and celebrations. They will also be able to describe their family members. They will be able to describe a celebration, including decorations, etc.	9 weeks (April-June)