

New Friends. New Adventures.

Plant the seeds of friendship, confidence, and adventure!

At this fun, hands-on event, girls will decorate a cup, plant their own seeds, and take home a little reminder of what they can grow.

Girl Scouts is all about discovering new interests, building friendships, and growing into strong, confident leaders—and this is the perfect place to start.

WHEN: Thursday | April 14th | 6:00-7:00pm

WHERE: Alameda Park | 97 Alameda Park Rd, Butler, PA 16001 (in the The Rotary Shelter-located at the upper part of Alameda Park beside the Kids Zone Playground.)

COST: This event is free. The cost of membership is what you will be signing up for.

Financial assistance is available to those who qualify for girl and troop leader membership, council activities, and uniform pieces.

MORE INFO: Contact Nicole at 800-248-3355 or email nsaville@gswpa.org.
