

Intro to Information Technology IET Class Information

Overview

The Intro to Information Technology Integrated Education and Training (IET) class is designed to equip students with the foundational skills and knowledge necessary to pursue a career in information technology. Combining academic instruction with practical training, this course prepares students for the workforce and the CompTIA Tech+ certification exam.

Intro to Information Technology Career Information (Collier County, FL)

- Typical Salary: The average base pay for an IT technician is $24 per hour in Naples, Fl.
- Job Settings: High demand exists in government, corporate offices, healthcare, and schools.
- Job Growth: Florida faces a projected 3% increase in demand for IT technicians, with higher-level IT roles are expected to grow faster at 6-10%.

Course Objectives

- IT Skills and Tasks: Engage in real-world tasks including troubleshooting hardware and software issues, setting up and maintaining computer systems, navigating operating systems, and applying basic networking concepts.
- Academic Skill Building: Build writing, reading, and math skills within the context of information technology.
- Professional Communication: Improve communication skills for effective interaction with clients, management, and colleagues.
- Prepare for Certification: Complete practice exams and exam-style activities to prepare for and successfully earn CompTIA Tech+ certification.
- Prepare for further training: This is an entry level information technology class. This class will help prepare students for the more difficult class ‘CompTIA A+ Information Technology, but some students with a strong background in computers and digital skills may go directly into the other class.

Admission Requirements

- GOALS Reading: NRS Level 4+
- Educational Background: High school diploma or higher is recommended, but not required for the class
- Language Proficiency: Advanced English proficiency for effective communication

Enrollment Information

- Duration: 15-week program
- Schedule: Tuesday/Wednesday/Thursday, 5:30-8:30 PM
- Location(s): Online
- Cost:
  - Registration Fees: $45
  - CompTIA Tech+ Exam Fee: $103 with student discount

For those interested in joining the Intro to Information Technology IET class, please check our website regularly for the registration process and upcoming sessions.