CONCERT ETIQUETTE

Please follow these guidelines for appropriate concert behavior:

1. Arrive on time.

If you are late, please wait until the end of the selection before entering the hall so that latecomers trying to find a seat will not distract the performers and other audience members.

2. Listen quietly while the performance is taking place.

Performers and audience members should never be distracted by unnecessary talking and movement.

3. Applause at the end of a performance.

Applause should be used only at the completion of a piece of music and that is generally indicated when the conductor's arms are dropped to the side.

4. Please do not wave or call out to performers.

Students have worked hard for weeks to prepare for performances.

Please do not distract them with improper concert behavior.

Applause, as noted above, is the best way to thank the performers.

5. Stay for the entire performance and wait until the end of the selection to leave.

If there is an emergency and you must leave before the final performance, please wait until there is a break in the program.

Please silence your cell phones.

PROGRAM NOTES

"Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy" is an iconic World War II era jump blues song most famously performed by The Andrews Sisters. Introduced in the 1941 Abbott and Costello film Buck Privates, the song follows a renowned Chicago trumpet player who is drafted into the army and becomes a bugler who plays "Reveille" in his signature boogie-woogie style.

"For Good" is a landmark duet from the 2003 musical Wicked, written by composer and lyricist Stephen Schwartz. It serves as a farewell between the two main characters, Elphaba and Glinda, acknowledging how their unlikely friendship has permanently altered their lives.

PROGRAM NOTES

The Eagles' version of "Seven Bridges Road" is a cover of a 1969 song by country singer-songwriter Steve Young, who was inspired by a real rural road in Montgomery, Alabama.

Woodley Road (specifically a stretch of County Road 39), which Young often drove after late-night jam sessions. The road originally featured seven small wooden bridges crossing Catoma Creek. Young was struck by the ethereal, "Disney-like" beauty of the moss-covered trees, old cemeteries, and moonlight along this path.
