3.4 School Performance Plan Review: The School Performance Plan was emailed to all SOT members prior to the meeting and was reviewed during the meeting.

3.5 CCSD Reopening Plan: Due to the Covid-19 Phase 2 plan from the governor, all instruction will continue to remain distance until January 15. The board of school trustees will meet on January 14, 2021, to discuss the MOA presented jointly today by the Superintendent Jara and CCEA and make a determination about a return date for students. It has been proposed that student in Pre-K to third grade return to school first, if parents chose the hybrid model. There is no time-line for the return of students in grades 4-Post Secondary, including students receiving Special Education services at this time. All other students will continue to receive distance learning through the remainder of the school year.

3.6 Miscellaneous: The virtual holiday program, held on December 15, was attended by 19 families.

- We received a $5,000.00 donation today from the family of a former student, to be used to assist with instructional programming.
