The Donald Peter Adamczyk Award

Donald Adamczyk grew up in New York Mills and had strong, lasting ties to his hometown. He was a passionate sports fan who played for both his school and local teams. Don's caring spirit shone through in everything he did - both on and off the field.

A $1000 scholarship will be awarded in Don's memory to one graduating senior student-athlete who demonstrates the same qualities Don was known for:
Kindness, Teamwork, Humility, Sportsmanship, and Loyalty.

Applicants Must:

- Be a member of the New York Mills UFSD Class of 2026
- Be a current student-athlete in good standing
- Play at least 2 varsity sports
- Demonstrates the values of Kindness, Teamwork, Humility, Sportsmanship, and Loyalty.
- Provide written responses to the following questions:
    - Why do you feel you qualify for this award?
    - What has being a student-athlete taught you, both on and off the field?
    - In what ways have you demonstrated Kindness, Teamwork, Humility, Sportsmanship, and Loyalty as a student-athlete, and how will you carry those values into your future?
