3rd Grade ELA Year – In – Review

Choose a fiction book and respond to the following: What is your favorite part of the story? Why? • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a fiction book and respond to the following: What is the problem in the story? • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a fiction book and respond to the following: How has the main character changed in the story? • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a nonfiction book and respond to the following: Find 3 new words in the text. Use context clues and/or a dictionary to define the words. • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a nonfiction book and respond to the following: What is the topic of your book? Why did you choose to read about this topic? • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.
Choose a fiction book and respond to the following: How do the illustrations in the story help you to understand what is happening? Give some specific examples. • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a fiction book and respond to the following: What is the theme or central message of the story? How do you know? • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a nonfiction book and respond to the following: What character traits best describe the main character in your story? Why? • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a nonfiction book and respond to the following: Write 3 questions that you can answer about your topic after reading? Include answers. • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a nonfiction book and respond to the following: What is the main idea of your book? How do the details support the main idea? • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.
Choose a nonfiction book and respond to the following: What text feature did you use while reading? How did it help you understand the text? • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Read 2 fiction books by the same author: Compare and contrast the themes, settings, or plots. • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a nonfiction book and respond to the following: Find 3 new words in the text. Use context clues and/or a dictionary to define the words. • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a fiction or nonfiction text and respond to the following: Find words that have prefixes or suffixes. Explain their meaning. • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a nonfiction book and respond to the following: If you have not finished the story, what do you predict will happen? • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.
Choose a nonfiction book and respond to the following: If you could add another chapter, what would it be about? Explain. • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a fiction book and respond to the following: How does the main character feel about the problem in the story? How do you know? • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a fiction book and respond to the following: Write a new ending for the story. • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a nonfiction book and respond to the following: Write a timeline to show the order in which events happened in your text. • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. • Answer the entire question.	Choose a nonfiction book and respond to the following: What was your favorite chapter? Explain why. • Write in complete sentences. • Use evidence from the text. Answer the entire question.

Reading Resources: Public Library/Online Platforms