Coaching Stipends and Post-Season Additional Pay

At the end of the coaching season, coaches must complete and submit the "Certification of Completion of Coaching Season - Version 2" form for approval to receive additional post-season stipend compensation.

Coaches qualifying for post-season pay will receive an additional 5% of their assigned stipend per week of post-season participation, up to a maximum of 5 weeks (25% total additional pay). The post-season begins after regular season games, practices, and league play conclude. The form must include both the regular season completion date and the post-season completion date.

Determination of a Post-Season Week:

If post-season play extends into the next week, the coach is entitled to that additional week of stipend compensation.

Qualifying post-season coaching scenarios:

- a) Participation in playoffs or a "bye" week
- b) Participation in the quarter-finals
- c) Competing in the state tournament
