PLACE MATTERS FOR STUDENT LEARNING

Safe, functional and efficient learning environments

A gallery of our new or rebuilt schools since 2000 thanks to community support of construction bonds

Bellingham Public Schools
a collective commitment

2022

Sunnyland Elementary School
Rebuilt 2022 with inclusive playground; original school 1926 and 1954

2017

Options High School
New in 2017; originally housed in portables since opening in 1994

2011

Cordata Elementary School
New school opened in 2011

2000

Bellingham High School
Rebuilt 2000; all new fields and courts 2017 to 2024; original school 1937

2021

Parkview Elementary School
Rebuilt 2021 with inclusive playground keeping the original gym and the 2016 addition; original school 1957

2016

Happy Valley Elementary School
Rebuilt 2016; original school 1956

2009

Shuksan Middle School
Rebuilt 2009; auxiliary gym 2021; original school 1956

2021

Alderwood Elementary School
Rebuilt 2021 with inclusive playground; original school 1956

2014

Birchwood Elementary School
Rebuilt in 2014; original school 1926

2008

Wade King Elementary School
New school opened in 2008

2019

Sehome High School
Rebuilt 2019 with all new fields and courts; original school 1967

2011

Whatcom Middle School
Rebuilt 2011 after 2009 fire; original school 1903 built as a high school; renovated over time

2002

Northern Heights Elementary School
New school opened in 2002

Schools opened or rebuilt before 2000

Carl Cozier Elementary School
Opened in 1951; in redesign process thanks to 2022 bond

Columbia Elementary School
Opened in 1925, with renovations over time; original school on same site 1890; in redesign process thanks to 2022 bond

Fairhaven Middle School
Opened in 1937 with major renovation in 1995

Geneva Elementary School
New school opened in 1982; addition in 1992; Original school in the Geneva area from 1890s

Kulshan Middle School
New school opened in 1994, new addition and field in 2024

Lowell Elementary School
Opened in 1914; retrofitted in 2008; addition in 2015

Roosevelt Elementary School
Rebuilt in new location 1972; original school 1902 at Woburn and Alabama; in redesign process thanks to 2022 bond

Silver Beach Elementary School
Addition 1978; original structures from 1911 and 1954; inclusive playground 2022

Squalicum High School
New school opened 1998; all new fields and courts 2016 to 2023

Programs

Community Transitions (CT) Program
CT is a Special Education program serving students through the age of 21 and is currently housed in temporary location while a new building on the Whatcom Community College campus is constructed

Family Partnership Program
Program opened in 2015 and is currently housed in former Larrabee Elementary School built in 1920