

HELP US LEARN ABOUT SERVICES FOR YOUNG CHILDREN IN YOUR COMMUNITY

the University of Connecticut (UConn) School of Social Work (SSW) Innovations Institute Parent, Infant, Early Childhood (PIEC) team is working with the Northeast East Early Childhood Council (NEECC) to promote the Pyramid Model.

The Pyramid Model is a framework that gives parents and educators strategies for supporting children's social emotional development and positive behavior.

Are you the parent of young children (through 2nd grade)?

Are you a provider who works with young children (through 2nd grade)?

Both?

Please use the link or QR code to complete a short survey.
Community Survey

Please share this with friends, colleagues, and community partners.
Questions: Email PIEC@uconn.edu

