

Harney Mountain Cats Behavior Expectations

	P Perseverance	R Responsibility	I Integrity	D Dependable	E Engagement
Classroom	- Strive to do your best. - Demonstrate a Growth Mindset. - Demonstrate grit. - Recognize positives - Never give up.	- Be on time to class. - Complete classroom tasks. - Be organized. - Track your progress. - Respect the property of others. - Follow ALL classroom rules.	- Treat others with respect and kindness. - Use classroom materials appropriately. - Demonstrate honesty. - Follow ALL rules when a substitute teacher is present.	- Make purposeful contributions in the classroom. - Accept roles and responsibilities in group work. - Be CLEVER. - Use appropriate language, tone, and voice level.	- Follow cell phone directives. - Be open to others' ideas and opinions. - Demonstrate SLANT: Sit up straight Lean forward Ask questions Nod your head Track speaker
Common Areas: Hallway/ Quad area	- Keep password and combination information private. - Demonstrate good manners.	- Walk purposefully and safely; don't run. - Keep hands and feet to yourself. No PDA. - Keep entry-ways clear. - Obtain a corridor pass during instructional time.	- Treat others and school property with respect and kindness. - Follow dress code (hats, hoods, earbuds).	- Use appropriate language and voice level. - Follow one-way hallway. - Take pride in your school campus	- Be positive about your day. - Keep your cell phone off and put away. - Be aware of your surroundings.
Cafeteria	- Close containers prior to discarding trash. - Demonstrate good manners. - Remain seated and at your table.	- Respect others' food and personal space. - Practice healthy eating habits. - Walk purposefully and safely; Don't run. - Don't solicit money from others.	- Be kind. - Line up single-file at the windows and student store and maintain your position. - Follow dress code (hats, hood, earbuds) - Treat school property with respect.	- Clean up after you are finished and throw your trash away. - Take pride in your school campus. - Use appropriate language, tone, and voice level.	- Be positive about your day. - Enjoy the conversations you have with your friends. - Invite others to join you. - Raise your hand to get out of your seat.
Restrooms	- Use the bathroom in a timely manner. - Keep the bathroom clean.	- Respect school property. - Prioritize using the restroom during passing periods and lunches. - Obtain a corridor pass during instructional time.	- Respect others' privacy. - Report problems to an adult. - Be mindful of others.	- Use appropriate language, tone, and voice level. - Flush toilets and wash hands.	Keep your cell phone off and put away.
Drills	Enter and exit in an orderly fashion.	- Keep calm and quiet. - Treat every situation as a true emergency.	Take it seriously.	Follow all procedures without being reminded.	Keep your cell phone off and put away.
Consequences
INTERVENTIONS: *Mountain Cats will take pride and responsibility for their own learning, actions, and consequences.		1. Reteach with direct verbal warning with documentation.	2. Private student conference with documentation, student verbal reflections, and parent contact (phone or note home)	3. Written behavior reflection sheet and phone call home.	4. Referral to the counseling office for student conference with documentation and parent phone call home.

