

Bloom like a flower As always

I choose this because it represents when I came to America I started my story and created a lot of memories. These memories help me as I cherish them throughout my life and they help me explore my world. When I came to America I started having freedom and explored a lot of things. I made new friends, found out hobbies I love and showed growth. I have always bloomed like a flower.