

Blessed by Mom-blessed by Dad

Why I chose these six words to represent my American story is, I was blessed by my Mom and Dad for choosing New York to be my birthplace and for America in general, because if I wasn't I wouldn't have met these amazing people in America. I also feel blessed by Mom and Dad for making me a proud African/American-Guinean/American!