

Friends are Love, Family is Home

Friends are the sunshine, warm and bright, turning gray days into pure delight, a chosen bond, a laughing heart, the love that shines never far apart. Family is the anchor, steady and deep, a promises made, a vow to keep, the place you belong, where spirits roam, the comforting shelter the welcoming home.