

NAME: _____

Summer Reading Challenge

BRENTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

Directions: Read a book that fits into any of the following categories. Record the title and author of the book in the appropriate category box, and check the box when you have finished reading. Be prepared to discuss the book with your new English teacher or a high school librarian! (Keep in mind, you cannot use the same book in multiple categories.)

DYSTOPIAN WORLDS

1

Read books about dark and hopeless places that seem like real life, only much worse!

POPULAR ON BOOKTOK

2

Read books that were recommended by a TikTok influencer.

BEACH READS

3

Read books set in the summer or books that take place on a beach, at a lake, or in a vacation destination.

WHODUNIT?

4

Read a thriller, a murder mystery, or anything that will keep you on the edge of your seat!

FIRST IN A SERIES

5

Read the first book in a sequence, such as a trilogy.

MYTHS & MAGIC

6

Read a book involving fantasy realms, supernatural creatures, historic legends, or fairytale retellings.

NAME: _____

Summer Reading Challenge

BRENTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

Directions: Read a book that fits into any of the following categories. Record the title and author of the book in the appropriate category box, and check the box when you have finished reading. Be prepared to discuss the book with your new English teacher or a high school librarian! (Keep in mind, you cannot use the same book in multiple categories.)

SHORT & SWEET

7

Read a book of short stories by the same author or an anthology with stories by different authors.

A BIT OF POETRY

8

Read an entire book of poetry or read a novel told in verse (poetic form).

PANEL BY PANEL

9

Read a book told using sequential artwork, such as graphic novels, comic books or manga.

TRUE EVENTS

10

Read a book about a person's life, including memoirs, biographies, or autobiographies.

NETFLIX PIX

11

Read a book that was made into a television show or movie.

AROUND THE WORLD

12

Read a book about a different cultures, religion, or time period.
