Student Support Programs

What are our Program Offerings?

Daily Checkout Program
Immediately after school, students come to Mimi's classroom where she personally checks their homework planner for completeness. This program runs Mon. – Thur., 3pm – 3:15pm. and Friday 1:30pm – 1:45pm. Students should expect to stay longer to complete outstanding work.

3-to-5 Homework Program
This afterschool study hall provides a supervised space where students can complete homework with a teacher on-hand who can answer homework questions and check homework books for completeness. The program is offered with various combinations Mon. – Thurs., 3pm – 5pm.

Tutoring
Single subject tutoring is available on campus for students looking for extra guidance from one of our faculty members. Availability is limited.

Educational Mentoring
This unique program is available to all students at The Grauer School who desire private mentoring and/or educational and organizational assistance. This is open to full-time Grauer School students ONLY, and enrollment is limited.

The Mentoring Program is specially designed to meet a student's needs and typically focuses on organization, study skills, and educational gaps. Equally important social, homework, and tutoring issues may be addressed as well. The emphasis is based on family requests, teacher recommendations, and standardized test scores.

Independent Study
Individualized learning plan taught under the supervision of a teacher with relevant subject-matter knowledge. For credit course study often taken due to special circumstances or for Credit Recovery.

When does it start and end?
3-to-5 and Daily Checkout begin as early as the first week of school.

Educational Mentoring assignments are typically made the second week of the academic year. Sessions will start during the second or third week of the year.

All programs continue through Finals Review Week each semester. Families may start pro-rated services later in the year as availability allows.
