

SUMMER READING ASSIGNMENT

RIISING 1ST GRADE

POETRY

- Memorize: “Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary” by Mother Goose, and be prepared to recite it at school.

“Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary” by Mother Goose

Mary, Mary, quite contrary
How does your garden grow?
With silver bells and cockleshells
And pretty maids all in a row.

- Illustration: Complete an illustration of this poem on the page which follows titled “Illustration of Poem” and bring it with you on the first day of school.

READING

- Read “The Ugly Duckling” by Hans Christian Andersen either independently or with a parent. The Ugly Duckling by Hans Christian Andersen, as adapted and illustrated by Jerry Pinkney, ISBN: 978-0-688-15932-0
- Activity & Illustration: Complete the activity page and draw a picture of your favorite part of the story. Bring both pages with you on the first day of school.
 - Note: Summer Reading Journals are required for Magnolia School students in grades 2-8, our first-grade Monarchs will not be using a journal for these assignments. They should complete them on the given pages.
