

E.E. Jeter SUMMER READING

5-6

The reading journey never truly ends at E.E. Jeter! Students will get a chance to continue their reading with a new book over the summer, which will become the focus for the first quarter's classes in the library.

7-8

Solve puzzles, uncover mysteries, and explore in these two fun novels!

Students will complete book-based activities and projects focusing on:

- plot and story structure
- genre characteristics
- character study
- and more

Updates and information can be found at the Jeter library web page:

<https://bit.ly/JeterLibrary>

Summer Reading Bingo

Get a Bingo by completing the reading tasks in the squares below. Prizes will be available in August! Include the titles you read for Summer Reading Bingo on your log, too. And don't forget to check out the summer reading events at your local library!

A book with a one-word title	A book set in a different country	A book that was adapted into a movie or show	A book you choose because of the cover	A book with a non-human protagonist (Ex: The main character is an animal.)
A book published in the year you were born	A book that takes place in space	A collection of short stories	A book with a number in the title	A book that takes place during summer
A book you have heard Mr. Fisher mention (feel free to ask him)	A classic novel	FREE SPACE	Listen to an audiobook	A book written by a new-to-you author
A book set in a post-apocalyptic world	A book about history/a historical event	A book with a magical creature	A graphic novel	A book that features a superhero
Reread a favorite book	A fantasy book	A book set in a fictional world	A nonfiction book	A book a friend recommends

