1. Narrative description of the Proposition 28 arts education programs funded (2500 character limit).

At Stanislaus Alternative Charter, the Prop 28 Arts and Education Program provides critical funding to support arts education tailored to the unique needs of our students. This program integrates art activities designed to foster social and emotional learning (SEL), offering students a creative outlet for self-expression, and personal growth. Through arts education, students engage in meaningful artistic experiences that provide a safe environment for processing emotions and building resilience. The program is designed to be responsive to the specific needs of the student population, ensuring that every student has the opportunity to participate in arts education that supports their well-being and personal development.
