

What is SEPAC?

The Special Education Parent Advisory Council (SEPAC) is a district-level, parent-driven group that works in partnership with school administrators to improve special education services and outcomes for all students with disabilities.

What We Do :

- ✓ Host workshops
- ✓ Provide family support
- ✓ Resources
- ✓ Host bimonthly meetings
- ✓ Provide a platform for parent input

Together, we strive to ensure that every child reaches their full potential.

Parents Helping
Parents – You're
Never Alone

Pequannock Student Services Child Study Team

Directors of Student Services

Helena Branco, PreK-5
Christopher Foglio, 6-12

Student Services Administrative

Assistant

Catherine Russell

School Social Workers

Kim Buscher, Kathryn Franke

School Psychologists

Shannon Patti, Sydni Nardino,
Meghan Ricca, Melissa Cohen

Learning Disabilities Teacher

Consultant

Amy Shea, Abigail Goff, Lisa Schlesinger

Our Mission

The mission of the Pequannock Special Education Parent Advisory Council (SEPAC) is to foster open communication and collaboration among parents, staff, and administration. We aim to support and enhance the district's special education programs by sharing feedback and providing meaningful input on issues affecting students with disabilities.

Why Join SEPAC?

-  Connect with parents walking the same path
-  Learn about services, rights, and supports
-  Attend workshops to stay informed
-  Share your voice to shape the future of special education
-  Feel empowered — you're not alone on this journey!