

K-5 Summer Reading Tic-Tac-Toe Activity Chart

After reading, choose an activity to complete. Color the pencil on your Summer Reading Tracker once you have finished the task.

You can complete these tasks multiple times throughout the summer.

Write About It. After reading a book, write about the book. You can add a different ending, add a new character, or give an opinion on the book.	My Favorite. Choose the favorite part of the book. Tell someone why this is your favorite part. Make sure to speak in complete sentences when describing your favorite part of the book.	Word Building. Say a word from one of the books. Have your child build the word using magnet letters or on paper. Then, have your child read the word and say a sentence using that word.	Review It. Create a 1-minute video reviewing the book. Make sure to include the book title, a quick summary, and a rating. Share the video with a family member, neighbor, or friend.	I Spy. Help your child identify letter sounds or letter patterns in the book. Give your child a clue. Then, have your child find the matching letter(s). For example, I spy something that begins with the sound /t/. Child finds the letter t.
Summarize It. Write a three-sentence summary of what you read. Write the details in order. Share your summary with a family member, neighbor, or friend.	Oops. This is a partner task. Write words from the book on index cards. Place words in a basket. Take turns reading the words. If the word is read correctly, the person keeps card. If the word is read incorrectly, you must say oops and put all words back in the basket. Continue until all cards are removed from the basket.	Words in the Story. Choose one of the books. Make a list of words with similar spellings. Have your child read the list of words 2-3 times. Have your child highlight the words from the word list in the book. Then, read the book together again.	Beat the Clock. Use a timer to record your child's time when reading a book. Have your child reread the book throughout the week. See if your child can beat the time from the previous reading of the book. Don't forget to ask questions about the story.	Lesson Learned. What lesson do you think the author wants you to learn from the book? Share the lesson of the book with a family member, neighbor, or friend.
Make a Connection. Think about the book that you have read. What story is like this one and why? OR How can you relate to the book and why?	The Sequel. Think about the book you have read. If you wrote a sequel to this book, what title would you give it and why?	Make a Movie. Create a short movie retelling the key details of the book. Use stuffed animals or family members to play different roles. Make sure to include the most important parts of the book.	Be an Author. Write and draw your favorite part of the book. Make sure to include details about the setting or surroundings of the book.	Reread It. Did you enjoy that book? Choose a different way to reread the book, such as in a different voice, with a flashlight, with a magnifying glass or sitting in a new space.
