Student Advisory Board Newsletter
Folsom Cordova Unified School District

By Rhea Khatra

"One person can make a difference, even if it takes forty years." - Fred Korematsu

Happy Asian American & Pacific Islander Month! This May, FCUSD is recognizing Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders. Fred Korematsu, a Japanese American, famously advocated against the internment of Japanese Americans during World War 2 in addition to fighting for other civil liberties. The Student Advisory Board aspires to continue his legacy by standing up for others.

What's been happening at SAB?

Student Advisory Board, 2026-27

Our Cordova Student Board Member will be Jeanene Wallace, a rising senior at Cordova High School. Our Folsom Student Board Member will be Sam Davies, a rising junior at Folsom High. We are so excited to see the transformative work the Board Members will propel next year. Student Board Members lead monthly SAB meetings and represent FCUSD student voices at board meetings.

Friendship Festival

The Student Advisory Board hosted the district's annual Friendship Festival on February 26 at Village Green Park in Rancho Cordova. The festival brought students together from different schools in the district and included many activities like bracelet-making, cookie and poster decorating, and a photobooth.

District-wide International Night

FCUSD's fourth annual district-wide International Night took place at Cordova High School's parking lot and Performing Arts Center in the evening on April 28th, 2026. The event celebrated FCUSD's cultural diversity and featured captivating performances and booths.
