The Tournament of Champions began yesterday as the Great and Vicious Ninors took on the Littletown Lunchables in a matchup between 8th and 6th graders. Right out the gate, Moreno's squad racked up 15 runs in the first two innings leaving the Lunchables appearing to be completely expired. Littletown rallied though and put up 8 runs to cut the lead in half giving hope and life to the young team. The Vicious Ninors continued to pour it on though and in the 3rd inning went back to doubling their lead and taking the WIN for the 8th game victors.

Breaking News! Coach Steely called in yesterday to congratulate coach Moreno on her team's epic season but that wasn't the only reason for the call ~ the Steely Sticky Monkey Flowers challenged the Great and Vicious Niños to battle on Wednesday of next week! Stay tuned....

Attention 8th Grade Students: Your class Panoramic Photo will be taken on Monday. Be sure to pick out a great outfit for this special picture, which will be a lasting memory of your middle school years. Additional details about when and where the photo will be taken will be provided Monday morning. The panoramic photo will be available to order online a few days after it is taken. Ms. Bump will send out a ParentSquare with ordering details. If you have any questions, please see Ms. Bump in the front office.
