Atlanta, Georgia

Audience Code of Conduct

---

It is the right of every senior and all other involved persons to expect a dignified commencement worthy of their time, effort, and financial investment. This occasion should reflect the highest possible excellence in accordance with established etiquette and protocol. Anything less defeats the real purpose and nullifies the unique educational value of commencement. To provide deserving, memorable moments to be treasured throughout the life span of the graduates, there must be cooperation between participants, planners, and the audience. The audience can pay their personal love and respect to their loved ones, as well as to all graduates, by following the guidelines listed below:

1. Do not reserve seats by placing personal possessions in them. Occupy only the seats in which you, your family, and your guests are seated.
2. Follow the directions of the ushers and guides.
3. When names are called to issue diplomas, it is important that each family has an opportunity to hear its graduate's name. Save your applause until all diplomas and honors have been presented.
4. Refrain from blocking the view of others by standing, taking photographs, bringing balloons into the venue, or otherwise obstructing the processional.
5. Refrain from any conduct that might detract from the ceremony (catcalls, yelling, obscene gestures, etc.).
6. Use common courtesy in relation to other members of the audience.
7. Remain seated for the recessional.

NOTE: Any person suspected of being under the influence of drugs or alcohol is subject to removal by the proper authorities.

“WASHINGTON! O WASHINGTON!”

*Washington! O Washington!
Thy name shall be thy guide,
For learning, fame, renown, and gain
Our gratitude abides.
As long as God’s eternal love
Shall hold their portals wide
For God and man in every land
We’ll serve for Washington.*

Chorus

*Washington! O Washington!
Thy name shall be our guide
For God and man in every land
We’ll serve for Washington.*

*Washington! O Washington!
Thy name shall never die.
Our hearts are thine, thy fame shall shine
O’er earth and sea and sky.
Thy halls shall echo memories,
Thy precepts reign sublime,
Where’er we roam, where’er our home
We’ll live for Washington.*

Booker T. Washington High School School History

Booker Taliaferro Washington High School, which has continuously epitomized the qualities of excellence that have been forever associated with its namesake, was founded September 24, 1924, under the auspices of the Atlanta Board of Education with the late Charles Lincoln Harper serving as its first principal. Booker T. Washington High School has the historical distinction of being the first and largest public high school for African Americans southeast of the Mississippi. In 1986, Booker T. Washington High School was placed on the National Register of Historic Places. For more than a century, Booker T. Washington High School has remained steadfast in its mission to educate the youth of Atlanta. The diverse achievements of its illustrious alumni stand as a profound testament to this enduring legacy.

This is not an official graduation list. This printed program lists students who were candidates for graduation at the time this program went to press, pending the final outcome of final exams and final grades. Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic status. The official registry for conferral of diplomas is the student's permanent record. The school's official roster of graduates is on file in the principal's office.
