

AP Literature and Composition Summer Reading Assignment (12th)

Review the How To Read Literature Like a Professor Powerpoint that accompanies this assignment. The information presented here will be heavily utilized in class as well as during exam preparation. How to Read Literature Like a Professor by Thomas C. Foster (ISBN: 978-0062301673) is a great resource to help not only with summer reading, but throughout the course as well. It is a required work. Please have a copy for when the year starts and refer to the PPT below for helpful information.

Read and Review

 Read Lit like a professor.pptx

Read the following novel. While you are reading, carefully annotate elements of the author's craft that help develop the theme(s) of the novel. You may consider aspects such as setting, conflict, character development, irony, symbolism, imagery, and diction; however, do not limit yourself to these suggestions. For further enrichment concerning annotations, please reference the aforementioned "How To Read Lit." Powerpoint.

Required Text

Wuthering Heights by Emily Bronte (ISBN 978-0141439556)

As you read your novel, complete the Major Works Data Sheet for the novel. You may only use online sources for the biographical, historical, and genre information. All other information should be completed from your understanding of the novel.
