

Teen Philanthroparty

Open to all high-school aged teens in DuPage County - Take one step toward a brighter you by attending this party with a purpose! Come for the fun, stay for the encouragement, and leave with raffle prizes, giveaways, and a boosted mindset.

Featuring Christine Conti

Christine is an educator and wellness advocate who helps students face their fears and find their voice. With her "Face It. Feel It. Flip It." method, Christine inspires students to turn fear into courage, speak up with confidence, and use their stories as a source of strength.

Donations to Serenity House

To attend, we ask that you bring 1 or more of the following:

- New or gently used mens and womens clothing (short sleeve t-shirts, underwear, pants/jeans)
- Toiletries (toothbrush, toothpaste, deodorant, body wipes, sunscreen)
- Individually-wrapped non-perishable snacks (granola bars, fruit snacks, trail mix)
- First aid supplies (gauze, bandages, antibiotic ointment)

Serenity House is a local treatment center for alcohol and substance use. Donations will help fund their new mobile outreach van. Learn more at the website below.
