Rakestraw Summer Assignment 2026:

AP United States Government and Politics

This summer, you need to get familiar with the US Constitution. This document is the foundation of everything that we will study next year and the source of many arguments in everyday society. Your job for the summer is to begin to understand what is and is not in this document by getting a very basic understanding of its structure. It is up to you to know what's in the preamble, the seven articles, and the twenty-seven amendments. Using the following presentation, be prepared to be quizzed on these 7 articles and 27 amendments during the first week of school and often throughout the year. The attached PowerPoint file is the only version of the Articles and Amendments that you should use to prepare. Do not trust some rando's premade Quizlet. If you have any questions, email rakestrawatwork@gmail.com .

There is no summer assignment for AP Comparative Government and Politics – Enjoy your summer!

Please contact Rakestraw if you are interested in working on Election Day in August during the first week of school, please see Mr. Rakestraw before you leave for the summer or contact him by email IN JUNE (to make sure you can complete training in time).
