

Summer Reading List

Grades 9–12

9th & 10th Grade — Movie Night

Choose a book of your choice that has also been made into a movie. Here is what you need to know:

- The book should be a chapter book with at least 100 pages.
- If you need the audio version, contact Technology to make the book available on Learning Ally.

11th & 12th Grade — Your Choice

Choose one title from the list below. Selections range from classics to contemporary — pick what resonates with you! If you have a title not on the list, reach out for approval.

1. The Road by Cormac McCarthy
2. A Gentleman in Moscow by Amor Towles
3. The Nickel Boys by Colson Whitehead
4. Parable of the Sower by Octavia Butler
5. The Poisonwood Bible by Barbara Kingsolver
6. The Odyssey by Homer (choose an edition appropriate for your reading level)
7. Project Hail Mary by Andy Weir
8. The Handmaid's Tale by Margaret Atwood
9. The Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini
10. A Confederacy of Dunces by John Kennedy Toole

Annotation Requirement

As you read, keep a record of your annotations using one of the following methods:

- Mark the text directly with symbols, comments, and questions.
- Use sticky notes at the end of each chapter for summaries, and within chapters for questions or vocabulary.
- Keep a Google Doc to track questions, comments, and unfamiliar words.
- Keep a handwritten notebook to track questions, comments, and unfamiliar words.

Please have a hard copy of your book for the first day of school, and the audio version from Learning Ally if needed.
