Dedicate Bennett School On Sunday

The Dedication Program for the Reginald R. Bennett Elementary School, Boiceville, N. Y. will be held at 3:00 P. M., Sunday, January 15, in the building's All-purpose Room. Francis H. Hazard, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, Kingston Consolidated System, will render the dedicatory address. All residents of the district are cordially invited to attend.

The Reginald R. Bennett Elementary building is located on the central site of the Onteora Central School District, Boiceville. The new building contains fourteen classrooms, complete facilities for health and library services, physical education, music, art and other special programs. Complete cafeteria facilities have been provided to serve an enrollment of approximately 400 students. A central sound system has been installed making each room and employee readily accessible for immediate contact.

The Dedication Program follows:

Introduction, Mrs. Jean Suloff, Vocal Music Teacher; Pledge of Allegiance, Ronald P. Vanni, Director of Elementary Education; Invocation, The Rev. Clarence Murray, Pastor, Methodist Church, Willow; Presentation of Flag, James Disonette, Representative, The American Hotel Association; Welcome, Philip Gordon, President, Board of Education; Introduction of Platform Guests, William H. Deming, District Principal; Introduction of Guest Speaker, Reginald R. Bennett, District Superintendent of Schools; Dedicatory Address, "A Time for Greatness", Franklin H. Hazard, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, Kingston, N. Y.; Presentation of Key to Building, Mr. Gordon; Acceptance of Key, Mr. Vanni; Benediction, The Rev. John Gorman, Pastor, St. Francis de Sales, Phoenicia; Student Dedication, First Grade Student (Mrs. Irene Frost).

Refreshments will be served following the program by members of the Onteora Parent Teachers Association.
