6. Report of the Principal (Creekland Middle School 2024-2025 Budget Discussion)

Mr. May began his discussion by, sharing with the school council members, the breakdown of annual budget allocated to the Creekland Middle School by the central office. His discussion showed the allocation of that sum to each individual department within the school.

Mr. May spoke at length about the school's plan to revamp the EXP (Instructional Extension Program), a program design to lend extra attention to students who struggle academically, from an after-school program to one that will begin to utilize some of the school hours to accomplish the same goal.

Mr. May went on to speak about the school's plan to purchase and add 106 additional students' computers to its inventory. Additionally, he mentioned the need to alter the appearance of some of the windows in the building to ensure better safety and security. Lastly, he spoke about the system's plan of studying and selecting a path with which the school system will be in line with state's constitutional amendment regarding the property tax, and not risking the loss of millions in revenue.
