

After review of all of the information (including enrollment, student discipline, academics, staff feedback, parent feedback, initiatives/programs, and more), the Board and District made the decision to keep the number of homerooms as currently allocated.

Should new information arise or enrollment change, the decision will be revisited. *****