

So why the increase in the Chester & Warwick HS tuition bills this year?

- Prior contracts did not properly account for cost of educating special education students. GWL was not paying the correct nor full cost to education all special education students.
- It has nothing to do with the State/Seneca Falls formula itself.

