

Current Contract Language

- The current contract reflects education law and properly accounts for special education students. It does so by applying:
  - The standard (regular education) rate for general education students, and
    - Warwick: $11,781                      Chester: $11,583                      *
  - The appropriate special education rate for students receiving those services
    - Warwick: $53,411                      Chester: $50,011                      *
- Allows for adjustment once actual cost determined when state formula calculations are finalized.

*current state formula rates