ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Track & Field nominates Addison Reynolds for Athlete of the Week: Addison is a talented, multi-sport athlete who in less than 2 months, went from never having pole vaulted to being able to qualify for the district championships this week and will have a valid chance to make it to the state championships next week. Besides the pole vault, Addison is on the 4 x 200 relay team competing for a spot at state. She has also competed in the 100, 200, and 400. Addison is a humble, hard-working athlete who continues to improve and set personal records each week. She's a great competitor and a valuable teammate, always showing good sportsmanship and citizenship.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Track & Field nominates Cameron Launiuvao for Athlete of the Week: Cameron has been a valuable competitor and teammate this season. He had a personal best in the shot put at the league championships last week, which was good enough for 2nd place and qualified him to compete in the district championships this week. When he's not competing, he's always helping other athletes and assisting in managing the throwing events. Cameron's positive attitude and diligent work ethic are an excellent example for his teammates and much appreciated by his coaches.
