

AP Literature Summer Assignment

Complete the following dialectical journal assignment for Samuel Beckett's play Waiting For Godot.

SINCE WAITING FOR GODOT IS A CLASSIC, DIGITAL COPIES ARE FREE TO DOWNLOAD TO YOUR COMPUTER OR E-READER.

Here is a link to an online version of the free text: Waiting for Godot by Samuel Beckett

And act 2: https://www.samuel-beckett.net/Waiting_for_Godot_Part2.html

1. For each Act of the this 2 Act play, you will find 10 quotes (2 on characterization, 2 on imagery, 2 on figurative language, 2 on tone, 2 on theme).
2. Place each quote in the chart below and analyze the importance of that quote. Your analysis should be 2 sentences AND NOT MERELY A PARAPHRASE.

Act 1:

Type of Quote	Quote	2 Sentences of Analysis
Quote that reveals something about the person who said it. (characterization)
Quote that reveals something about the person who said it. (characterization)
Quote that contains imagery .
Quote that contains imagery .
Quote that contains figurative language .
Quote that contains figurative language .
Quote that shows tone/attitude .
Quote that shows tone/attitude .
Quote that shows theme (possible message of the book)
Quote that shows theme (possible message of the book)

Act 2:

Type of Quote	Quote	2 Sentences of Analysis
Quote that reveals something about the person who said it. (characterization)

Quote that reveals something about the person who said it. (characterization)
Quote that contains imagery.
Quote that contains imagery.
Quote that contains figurative language.
Quote that contains figurative language.
Quote that shows tone/attitude.
Quote that shows tone/attitude.
Quote that shows theme (possible message of the book)
Quote that shows theme (possible message of the book)		