JOHN T. HOGGARD HIGH SCHOOL HONOR SOCIETIES

Hoggard High School has within each department an honor society for the purpose of recognizing students who have excelled in various disciplines. The aim is to stimulate interest in advanced study, promote higher standards of understanding of a variety of subjects, and reward efforts in promoting positive school/community relations. Each department sets its own specific standards and requirements for admission into that society. Most departments specify a grade point average, a certain level of achievement, and a requirement for community service.
