3. NEW BUSINESS

3.1 Approval of Steilacoom High School Principal Hire

Steilacoom High School Principal Hire

Superintendent Weight shared following a comprehensive and community-informed selection process, she is pleased to announce the appointment of Hayley Hathaway as principal of Steilacoom High School as of July 1, 2026. Dr. Weight shared it was a competitive process that included input from students, staff, and families, including surveys, listening sessions, interview panels, and a community forum. Two exceptional finalists emerged, both current assistant principals at SHS, which made this a difficult decision. Dr. Weight shared Mrs. Hathaway distinguished herself through her strong instructional leadership, commitment to building relationships, and her demonstrated impact this year in key focus areas aligned with our draft strategic plan, including Career and Technical Education (CTE), special education, and mathematics. Dr. Weight continued by sharing Mrs. Hathaway brings a depth of experience as an administrator, teacher, and instructional coach, along with a strong understanding of the SHS community. Dr. Weight expressed her confidence in Mrs. Hathaway's ability to build on the school's strengths and lead with a continued focus on student success.
