

DALLAS COUNTY SCHOOL SYSTEM
Parent and Family Engagement Policy/Plan
2021 - 2026

As required by section 116(a) (1) (2) (B) (C) (D) (i) (E)
Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA)

GENERAL EXPECTATIONS

The Dallas County School System agrees to implement the following requirements:

- The school district will put into operation programs, activities, and procedures for the involvement of parents in all of its schools with Title I, Part A Programs, consistent with section 1116 of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). Those programs, activities, and procedures will be planned and operated with meaningful consultation with parents of participating children.
- Consistent with section 1116, the school district will work with its schools to ensure that the required school-level parent engagement policy/plan meets the requirements of section 1116(c) (4) of the ESSA, and each includes, as a component, a school-parent compact consistent with section 1116(d) (2) (D) of ESSA.
- The school district will incorporate this district-wide Parent and Family Engagement Policy/Plan into its district plan developed under section 1116(a)(1)(2)(B)(C)(D)(E) of the ESSA.
- In carrying out the Title I Part A parent and family engagement requirements, to the extent practicable, the Dallas County School System and its schools will provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with children with limited English proficiency, parents with children with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports required under section 1116 of the ESSA in an understandable and uniform format and, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable, in a language parents can understand.
- If the LEA plan for Title I, Part A, developed under section 1116 of ESSA, is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school district will submit any parent comments with the plan when the school district submits the plan to the State Department of Education.
- (If and when funding level requires this part): The school district will involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how the one percent of Title I, part A funds reserved for parent and family engagement is spent and will ensure that not less than ninety percent of the one percent reserved goes directly to the schools. The remaining ten percent of the one percent shall be used for district initiatives.

The Dallas County School System will be governed by the following statutory definition of parent and family engagement and expects Title I schools will carry out programs, activities, and procedures under this definition:

- The school district will be governed by the following definition of parental engagement and expects that its Title I schools will carry out programs, activities, and procedures following this definition: Parent and Family Engagement means the participation of parents or guardian in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring-

2021 - 2026 ADMISSION POLICY

for English Language Learners (ELLs) , FOSTER CARE, HOMELESS, and MIGRANT STUDENTS

Pursuant to the requirements of "The Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015" as amended by Title IX of McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act, all students in foster care, homeless students, migratory students, and English language learners must have equal access to the same free appropriate public education, including public preschool education, provided to other children and youth. This shall be the policy of the Dallas County School System. Such children will be provided the opportunity to meet the same challenging state content and state student performance standards to which all students are held without being stigmatized or isolated.

The enrollment of homeless, migrant, immigrant, students in foster care, and English learners shall not be denied or delayed due to any of the following barriers:

- Lack of birth certificate
- Lack of school records or transcripts
- Lack of immunization or health records
- Lack of proof of residency
- Lack of transportation
- Guardianship or custody requirements
- Social Security Number
- Unaccompanied youth; no guardians

The Dallas County School System will employ practices that increase the awareness of the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act: Homeless Education program. The district shall notify parents/guardians of homeless children and youth of available resources and assist them in accessing the resources.

The Dallas County School System shall conduct its annual evaluation of its Homeless Education program to determine the effectiveness of the program. The system will adjust practices and procedures as needed to improve the effectiveness of implementation and student achievement.

Enrollment Dispute

- If a dispute arises over school selection or enrollment in a school:
- The child or youth shall be immediately admitted to the school in which enrollment is sought, pending resolution of the dispute.
- Local homeless liaison shall be informed immediately of the dispute.
- Dispute shall be resolved at the district level rather than the school level.
- The dispute resolution process shall be informal and accessible to all involved and carry out as expeditiously as possible.
- Parents, guardians, and unaccompanied youth shall be informed that they can provide written or oral documentation to support their position.
- Written notice of the discussion shall be as strict as possible, simply stated and provided in a language the parent, guardian, or unaccompanied youth can understand.
- Notice of the right to appeal to the State if the district-level resolution is not satisfactory shall be given to the parents, guardian, or unaccompanied youth.

DEFINITION: Section 725(2) of the McKinney-Vento Act defines "homeless children and youths" as individuals who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence. The term includes:

- Children and youth who are: - sharing the housing of other persons due to loss of housing, economic hardship, or a similar reason (sometimes referred to its "doubled-up"); - living in motels, hotels, trailer parks, or camping grounds due to lack of alternative adequate accommodations; - living in emergency or transitional shelters; or - abandoned in hospitals;
- Children and youth who have a primary nighttime residence that is a public or private place not designed for, or ordinarily used as, a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings;
- Children and youth who are living in cars, parks, public spaces, abandoned buildings, substandard housing, bus or wain stations, or similar settings; and
- Migratory children who qualify as homeless because they are living in circumstances described above. The McKinney-Vento Act no longer includes children and youths who are awaiting foster care placement in the definition of "homeless children and youth." For all non-covered" States, this change is reflective on December 10, 2016.
