Public Concerns and Comments: Brenda Bressler discussed how March is "Music Month" at Renton. She recognized Ashton Diroff, who applied for and was accepted to the Michigan All State Honors Band. Two thousand three hundred students auditioned, and only 105 were selected. Also the Renton Choir received 115 out of 120 points at their District Festival, which was the best score in all of District 12 for the Choir festival.

Mrs. Jenna Buffa address the Board with her concerns about the communication process with regards to the recent bus incident.

Communication: Kari Grzywacz and Beth Fortino recognized the intervention students for their great accomplishments through the year.

Andrew Tomasek gave a presentation on all of the things that are happening around Miller. He discussed the On-Site Review and how wonderful the whole audit went. He talked about the various clubs that are available to the students, the new ELA curriculum, and the Unified Champions.

The DECA students; Shayne Diegel, Ava Camilleri, Sloan Wood, Ellen Town, Corinne Gietzen, and Addison Bozynski, gave a presentation on the conferences that they went to, and now they are moving on to International Conference in Orlando, Florida.

Steven Hudock introduced Dominic Vena and Karla Nash, who gave a brief presentation on why they are asking for the approval of the 6th grade camp, and all of the wonderful things the camp has to offer. He also recognized Christine Sagert and Andrew Tomasek for their dedication to the On-Site Review. He went over the details of the audit and explained how amazing everyone was and they loved how everyone worked together.
