

SCHOOL RULES AND REGULATIONS 2026-2027 SCHOOL YEAR

1. MISSION

If you are looking for German language classes with a focus on a holistic, hands-on learning experience—either for your child(ren) or for yourself—you will find this at our beautiful and culturally rich school, located in a quiet residential neighborhood in White Plains.

What began as a dedicated German Language School has grown over the years. While German remains at the heart of our program, we now also offer additional world languages as for example Spanish, Italian, Russian, and ESL, reflecting our commitment to multilingualism and global citizenship. These are subject to sufficient enrollment.

We provide our students—starting with PreK-4 through high school, as well as adult learners—with a caring environment grounded in academic excellence and individual growth. In our German program, students strengthen their language skills while experiencing the traditions and cultures of all German-speaking countries. In our other language offerings, students likewise engage deeply with the language and the cultural contexts in which it is spoken, fostering curiosity and intercultural understanding.

We encourage our students to participate in standardized examinations that provide formal proof of their language proficiency. In German, students have the opportunity to take all levels of the National German Exam, the Advanced Placement (AP) German Language and Culture exam, and the official German language diplomas, including the Deutsches Sprachdiplom (DSD I, level A2/B1) and DSD II (level B2/C1). The German Sprachdiplom, in particular, offers a gateway to the European higher education system.

We are proud to have been recognized as a Center of Excellence by the American Association of Teachers of German, to be listed as an official PASCH school by the German Federal Foreign Office's Partner School Initiative, and to be members of both the American Association of Teachers of German and the German Language School Conference.

We believe that learning multiple languages is more important than ever in today's global community. It is a vital steppingstone toward deeper understanding and appreciation of other cultures. If you agree with Wilhelm von Humboldt that languages are a gateway to the world, we encourage you to explore what the Language School at GISNY has to offer—high-quality, affordable small-group instruction in a supportive and stimulating learning environment.

17. COMMUNICABLE DISEASE WAIVER AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY

Communicable diseases, including without limitation COVID-19, the flu, and RSV, are extremely contagious and are spread by person-to-person contact; and, as a result, may spread at a higher rate in community settings, such as schools. The School follows the protocols, policies and procedures designed by the German International School New York to reduce the spread of communicable diseases. Students and their families are expected to adhere to these protocols to reduce the risks of contracting or spreading communicable diseases at the School.

Despite the measures in place to mitigate the risk of transmission of communicable diseases on campus, there are inherent risks that students and/or their families may become infected with one or more communicable diseases due to the student's presence on campus. These risks include, but are not limited to, the following: exposure to a communicable disease, becoming infected with a communicable disease, or becoming a symptomatic or asymptomatic carrier of a communicable disease. Any person who contracts a communicable disease, including a student or their family member, may encounter medical care, hospitalization, other potential complications, and the risk of death. By allowing the student to come to campus for any reason, students/parent(s)/legal guardian(s) understand, acknowledge, and voluntarily assume these risks on behalf of themselves and their student.

Students/parent(s)/legal guardian(s) understand that the student's presence on campus creates the risk that parent(s)/legal guardian(s) and/or the student could be exposed and/or contract a communicable disease. By signing this Contract, students/parent(s)/legal guardian(s) release the Released Parties, from all claims, liability and damages that parent(s)/legal guardian(s) or student may have for personal injuries, illnesses, medical expenses, theft or damage of personal property, or other loss resulting from student's presence on campus. Students/parent(s)/legal guardian(s) agree that this release includes personal injury, illness, medical expenses, or other losses caused by or resulting from negligence, active or passive, of the Released Parties; however, the release does not apply to liability for gross negligence, willful injury, or fraud, and is not intended to release any of the Released Parties' insurers, if any, or non-agent third parties of any responsibility for any claims that may otherwise be asserted.
