

Bottom Line

---

Option 1 puts the exact same budget back up for community vote. If it fails, a contingency budget must be adopted.

Both Option 2 & Option 3 come with cuts to the budget, including staff reductions beyond what has already been announced, reconsidering funding sources for both short and long term, and may further impact programming and organizational stability.

