FLOWERS IN THE CHURCH AND CHAPEL

With gratitude to those who lovingly care for the beauty of our church, we kindly ask parishioners to avoid moving or touching the flower arrangements in the altar and sanctuary areas.

Each week, dedicated members of our parish lovingly prepare the church environment as an offering of service to God and to our parish community. These arrangements are carefully planned to reflect the beauty, reverence, and sacredness of the liturgy. In the gentle, prayerful spirit of St. Francis de Sales, we kindly ask everyone to please refrain from touching or rearranging the flower arrangements in the altar and sanctuary areas. Thank you for helping us preserve a prayerful and welcoming space for all.

PARISH

A TIME OF SOLEMNITIES

We are in the midst of four solemnities: Ascension of the Lord, Pentecost, Most Holy Trinity, and Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We usually use the word 'feast' to cover all levels of celebration, even though the word has a precise meaning in the hierarchy of celebrations. The three basic classes of celebrations are memorial, feast, and solemnity. Let's explore solemnities!

Solemnities are of the highest degree and reserved for the most important mysteries of faith. These include Easter, Pentecost, and the Immaculate Conception, and the principal titles of Our Lord, such as Trinity and Sacred Heart, and celebrations that honor some saints of particular importance, such as Sts. Peter and Paul.

Solemnities have the same basic elements as a Sunday: three readings, prayer of the faithful, the Creed or Gloria, which is recited or sung even when the solemnity occurs during Advent or Lent. In most cases, it also has a particular preface. A solemnity is celebrated if it falls on a Sunday of Ordinary Time or Christmastide. But it is transferred to the following Monday if it falls on a Sunday of Advent, Lent, or Easter, or during Holy Week or the Easter octave. Most likely, this is more than you ever wanted or needed to know about Solemnities. We will just rejoice in this time of Solemnities!!

DOMINGO DE PENTECOSTÉS (MAYO 24, 2026)

El gran amor y los cuidados de Dios nuevamente se manifiestan en la Fiesta del Pentecostés. El hecho de que el Espíritu Santo viva en nosotros es un factor esencial para la espiritualidad de San Francisco de Sales.

El amor es lo que da vida al corazón. El Espíritu Santo, que nos ha sido otorgado, vierte el amor divino sobre nuestros corazones. El Espíritu es como una fuente de agua viviente que fluye en cada parte de nuestros corazones y va extendiendo su gracia. La gracia posee el poder de atraer nuestros corazones. A través del Espíritu Santo, Dios despierta y aviva nuestros corazones para que se percaten de su bondad. Muchas veces necesitamos que se nos despierte y se nos lleve de la mano para que hagamos uso apropiado de nuestra fuerza y talentos.

Si queremos sentir la presencia del Espíritu Santo en nosotros, debemos deshacernos de nuestros caprichos y acomodar nuestra voluntad a la voluntad de Dios. Debemos ser como la arcilla en manos del alfarero, para que Dios pueda moldearnos y llevarnos por el sendero de la verdadera salud espiritual. Aun cuando no podemos impedir que Dios inspire nuestros corazones, todos poseemos el poder para rechazar el deseo que tiene Dios de amarnos. Del mismo modo, el Espíritu Santo no tiene deseo alguno de obrar en nosotros sin nuestro consentimiento. ¡Pero si llegamos a consentir aunque sea mínimamente a las inspiraciones de Dios, qué felicidad obtendremos!

El fruto único del Espíritu Santo, que es el amor divino, nos llena de dicha interior y de consuelo, al mismo tiempo que llena nuestro corazón de una paz que perdura aun en medio de la adversidad, por medio de la paciencia. El amor sagrado nos hace amables y gentiles, y, a la hora de ayudar a los demás, lo haremos con una bondad sincera hacia ellos. Esa bondad, que proviene del Espíritu Santo, es constante y perseverante y nos provee de un coraje duradero que nos hace afables, agradables y considerados con los demás. Esto hace que soportemos los cambios de su estado anímico y sus imperfecciones. Llevaremos una vida simple que será testimonio de nuestras palabras y acciones. El amor divino es la virtud de todas las virtudes. Apreciemos y cultivemos al Espíritu que habita en nosotros, para que el amor de Dios pueda reinar ahí también.

(Adaptado de los escritos de San Francisco de Sales y Juana de Chantal).

INTERNATIONAL PROJECT: MEDICAL CLINIC IN HAÏTI

St. Mark Catholic Church is embarking on a mission to establish a small medical clinic in the Les Cayes region of Haïti (the southwestern corner). This effort developed as a result of 8 years of support given by St. Mark for the medical education of Jean Gardimy Inel (known as Pierrichard), in partnership with Haïti College Fund, a small 501(c)(3) charity supporting post-secondary education in Haïti. With a new doctor now licensed to practice in Haïti, the next step is to establish a health clinic so that the people in this area can benefit from Pierrichard’s training.

A group of parishioners from St. Mark, interested in advancing this undertaking forward, is seeking help from nearby Catholic parishes for the Medical Clinic in Haïti (MCH project). Specifically, MCH is looking for volunteers in 3 areas: communications director, research and coordination director, and development director (fundraising). Interested individuals who could lend their expertise to this project are asked to call John Barba at 703-400-5758 or contact him at john.barba@haiticollegefund.org to learn more.
