School Description

The Explorer Community School shares a campus with Dickinson Elementary in Redmond, Washington. As our students leave Explorer Community School, they attend various middle schools around the district, depending on their home school. Explorer Community School opened its doors in the Fall of 1996 and has a mixed-grade classroom environment with three classrooms: 1st/2nd grade, 2nd/3rd grade, and 4th/5th grade. We have high levels of parental participation who are highly involved in enhancing the learning of our students.
